Christian Science Church—Service at 10:45 a. m. Wednesday evening meeting at 7:30. To these services all are welcome. The reading-room is open Tuesday and Friday from 2 to 4 p. m. 7 Summer street.

First Baptist Church—George H. Holt, pastor. 10:30, morning worship; sermon subject, "Facing a New Year," 12, Bible school. The lessons of the quarter will be reviewed. There will be no junior meeting. Because of the Christmas concert, the Christian Endeavor meeting will be postponed one week. At 7 p. m., Christmas concert, given by the Sunday school scholars. Thursday evening at 6:45, teachers' meeting; at 7:30, prayer meeting.

First Presbyterian Church—Edgar Crossland, pastor. Morning service at 10:30; subject of sermon, "In the Fullness of Time." Evening service at 7 o'clock. There will be special music throughout the day. In the morning the music includes an anthem, "Behold I Bring You Good Tidings," a solo by Nicholas Veale, "The Christ Child," and an anthem, "The Song in the Night." In the evening the choir will sing "Bethlehem" and "Sing Jehovah's Praises"; Miss Bella Cantley will sing a solo entitled "He Shall Feed His Flock" from "The Messiah." George F. Mackay will also render a solo.

Methodist Episcopal Church—E. F. Newell, pastor. Morning worship at 10:30; sermon on, "That Wonderful Night and the Wonderful Dawning." Short sermon to young people on "Don't You Wish You Knew?" Sunday school lesson on, "Jehovah's Gracious Promises to Israel." There will be no junior, intermediate or Epworth leagues, as we all want to attend the "White Gift" Christmas exercise at 7 o'clock. The children, young people and the choir take part in the service and the pastor will speak briefly on "Make Jesus King!" Envelopes with money and pledges or other gifts should be brought to this service. All are cordially invited to attend.

Universalist Church—John B. Reardon, minister. Public worship and sermon at 10:30; subject, "The Season for Retrospection and Review." EAST MONTPELIER

The Grange Held an Interesting Session Wednesday Evening.

The regular meeting of the grange was held Wednesday evening and one of the most enjoyable evenings of the year was attended by 75 members. Besides this number 13 members of the Montpelier grange were present as visitors. The third and fourth degrees were worked on 10 new members. After the business had been transacted the company sat down to a bountiful harvest supper served by the ladies of the grange. Needless to say, all did justice to the occasion. The installation of the new officers will take place Wednesday, Jan. 5. At this time the annual banquet will also be held. The executive committee have appointed Mr. and Mrs. Russell Collins to be the installing officers.

January sale Monday at Abbott's.
